April 3: Bucket List A humorous film, starring Jack Nicholson and Morgan Freeman, about two men who have reached the age where they want to try to accomplish all the things that are left on their "bucket list" before they die.

April 10: If We All Lived Together A touching comedy about aging - and finding friends to live with who want to age with you.

April 17: The Wife Glenn Close won last year's Academy Award for Best Actress for this character study of a woman who has been in a forty year marriage and is challenged by the deep reality of what their marriage has really been like vs the public presentation that she and her husband make to the outside world.
